

Privacy policy on the data processing of Merchants' contact persons' personal data

Effective: 16 March 2025

OTP Mobile Services Ltd. (seat: 1138 Budapest, Váci út 135-139. B. ép. 5. em.; Cg. 01-09-174466; VAT No.: 24386106-2-44, hereinafter "Simple" or "Data controller") hereby informs the contact persons of the Merchants about the processing of their personal data.

1. Data processing related to the SimplePay agreement for the purpose of concluding contract, communication and general case management

During the contracting with Merchants, Simple gains knowledge of the personal data of Merchant's representatives and contact personnel, moreover, if Merchant is a sole trader. Simple informs the Merchants and Merchant representatives of the processing of their data as follows.

Simple manages the personal data of sole trader Merchants pursuant to GDPR Article 6 (1) a), for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party.

Simple processes the personal data of Merchant representatives and contact personnel pursuant to GDPR Article 6 (1) f) for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller, which is Simple.

It is the joint legitimate interest of Simple and the Merchant for the personal data of the Merchant's representatives and contact persons to be managed, since it is necessary to conclude the contract between the Merchant and Simple, for keeping contact, and for providing contractual notifications to the Merchant. Only the essential personal data of the representative and the contact person are managed, so the fundamental rights and freedoms of the representative and the contact person are not infringed upon, and they do not preclude the legitimate interests of Simple.

For the request of the data subject, the data subject is entitled to receive the legitimate interest balancing tests regarding the data processing based on legitimate interest. The request shall be submitted to the customer service e-mail address.

In case of data processing based on legitimate interest, the data subject is entitled to object against the data processing; in this case the Data controller does not process his/her data further.

The legal basis for the data management is specified below per data categories and data processing purposes.

14. Data transfer

The personal data of Merchants' contact persons is not transferred by Simple to any third countries not party to the GDPR, these are only forwarded to data processors and data controller nominated under point 3. hereto.

15. Rights of Merchants' contact persons

The detailed rights and remedies of the individuals – which include Employees and the people listed in Section 1 – are set forth in the applicable provisions of the GDPR (especially in articles 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 77, 78, 79, 80, and 82 of the GDPR). The summary set out below describes the most important provisions and the Data controller provides information for the individuals in accordance with the above articles about their rights and remedies related to the processing of personal data.

The information shall be provided in writing, or by other means, including, where appropriate, by electronic means. When requested by the individual, information may also be provided orally, provided that the identity of the individual is proven by other means.

The Data controller will respond without unreasonable delay and by no means later than within one month of receipt to the request of an individual whereby such person exercises his/her rights about the measures taken upon such request (see articles 15-22 of the GDPR). This period may be, if needed, extended by further two months in the light of the complexity of the request and the number of requests to be processed. The Data controller notifies the individual about the extension also indicating its grounds within one month of the receipt of the request. Where the request has been submitted by electronic means, the response should likewise be sent electronically unless the individual otherwise requests.

In case the Data controller does not take any measure upon the request, it shall so notify the individual without delay but by no means later than in one month stating why no measures are taken and about the opportunity of the individual to lodge a complaint with the data protection authority and to file an action with the courts for remedy.

15.1. The individual's right of access

- (1) The individual has the right to obtain confirmation from the Data controller whether or not personal data concerning him/her are being processed. Where the case is such, then he/she is entitled to have access to the personal data concerned and to the following information:
 - a) the purposes of the processing;
 - b) the categories of personal data concerned;
 - c) the recipients or categories of recipient to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed including especially recipients in third countries and/or international organisations;

- d) where possible, the envisaged period for which the personal data will be stored, or, if not possible, the criteria used to determine that period;
 - e) the right of the individual to request from the Data controller rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing of personal data concerning the individual, or to object to such processing;
 - f) the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority;
 - g) where the personal data are not collected from the individual, any available information as to their source;
 - h) whether automated decision making (Section (1) and (4) of article 22 of the GDPR) is applied including profiling, and in such case, at least information in comprehensible form about the applied logic and the significance of such data processing and the expectable consequences it may lead to for the individual.
- (2) Where personal data are forwarded to a third country, the individual is entitled to obtain information concerning the adequate guarantees of the data transfer.
- (3) The Data controller provides a copy of the personal data undergoing processing to the individual. The Data controller may charge a reasonable fee based on administrative costs for requested further copies. Where the individual submitted his/her request in electronic form, the response will be provided to him/her by widely used electronic means unless otherwise requested by the individual.

15.2. Right to rectification

The individual has the right to request that the Data controller rectify inaccurate personal data which concern him/her without undue delay. In addition, the individual is also entitled to have incomplete personal data completed e.g. by a supplementary statement or otherwise.

15.3. Right to erasure ('right to be forgotten')

- (1) The individual has the right that when he/she so requests, the Data controller erase the personal data concerning him/her without delay where one of the following grounds applies:
- (a) the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed by the Data controller;
 - (b) the individual withdraws consent on which the processing is based, and no other legal ground subsists for the processing;
 - (c) the individual objects to the processing and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing;
 - (d) the personal data have been unlawfully processed;
 - (e) the personal data have to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation in Union or Member State law to which the Data controller is subject;
 - (f) the collection of the personal data occurred in connection with offering services regarding the information society.
- (2) In case the Data controller has made the personal data public and then it becomes obliged to delete it as aforesaid, then it will, taking into account the available technology and the costs of implementation, take reasonable steps including technical steps in order to inform processors who carry out processing that the individual has initiated that the links leading to the personal data concerned or the copies or reproductions of these be deleted.

- (3) Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall not apply to the extent that processing is necessary, among other things, for:
- a) exercising the right of freedom of expression and information;
 - b) compliance with a legal obligation which requires processing by Union or Member State law to which the Data controller is subject;
 - c) archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes in so far as the right referred to in paragraph (1) is likely to render impossible or seriously impair the achievement of the objectives of that processing; or
 - d) the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

15.4. Right to restriction of processing

- (1) The individual has the right to obtain a restriction of processing from the Data controller where one of the following applies:
- a) the accuracy of the data is contested by the individual, for a period enabling the Data controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
 - b) the processing is unlawful, and the individual opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
 - c) the Data controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but the individual requires them for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
 - d) the individual has objected to processing based on the legitimate interest of the Data controller pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the Data controller override those of the individual.
- (2) Where processing has been restricted under paragraph (1), such personal data shall, with the exception of storage, only be processed with the consent of the individual or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person or for reasons of important public interest of the Union or of a Member State.
- (3) The Data controller informs the individual whose request has served as grounds for the restriction based on the aforesaid, before the restriction of processing is lifted.

15.5. Notification obligation regarding rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing

The Data controller will communicate any rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing to each recipient to whom the personal data have been disclosed, unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort. The Data controller informs the individual about those recipients if he/she so requests.

15.6. Right to data portability

- (1) The individual has the right to receive the personal data concerning him/her, which he/she has provided to the Data controller in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from the Data controller, where:

- a) the processing is based on consent or on a contract; and
 - b) the processing is carried out by automated means.
- (2) In exercising the right to data portability pursuant to paragraph 1, the individual shall have the right to have the personal data transmitted directly from one controller to another, where technically feasible.
- (3) Exercising the aforesaid right shall not contravene to provisions concerning the right to erasure ('right to be forgotten') and, further, this right shall not harm the rights and freedoms of others.

15.7. Right to object

- (1) The individual has the right to object, on grounds relating to his/her particular situation, at any time to processing of personal data concerning him/her for the purposes of legitimate interests. The Data controller will no longer process the personal data unless it demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the individual or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
- (2) Where personal data are processed for scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes, the individual, on grounds relating to his/her particular situation, has the right to object to processing of personal data concerning him/her, unless the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out for reasons of public interest.

If the individual objects to system messages (for example, notifications of shutdowns, planned maintenance, upgrades) and does not wish to receive such messages in the future, the Data controller will no longer send system messages to the individual. Due to the technical operation of the database containing the name and e-mail address of the individual used by the Data controller to send system messages, and in view of the system update time required for the technical implementation of the right to object, the individual may receive further system messages within 48 hours at the latest after the exercise of his/her right to object and unsubscribe.

15.8. Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority

The individual has the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular in the Member State of his/her habitual residence, place of work or place of the alleged infringement if he/she considers that the processing of personal data relating to him/her infringes the GDPR. In Hungary, the competent supervisory authority is the National Data protection and Freedom of Information Authority (website: <http://naih.hu>; address: 1055 Budapest, Falk Miksa u. 9-11.; mailing address: 1363 Budapest, POB 9; Phone: +36 1 391 1400; fax: +36 1 391 1410; e-mail: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu).

15.9. Right to an effective judicial remedy against a supervisory authority

- (1) The individual has the right to an effective judicial remedy against a legally binding decision of a supervisory authority concerning him/her.
- (2) The individual has the right to an effective judicial remedy where the supervisory authority which is competent does not handle a complaint or does not inform him/her within three months on the progress or outcome of the complaint lodged.
- (3) Proceedings against a supervisory authority shall be brought before the courts of the Member State where the supervisory authority is established.

15.10. Right to an effective judicial remedy against the Data controller or the processor

- (1) The individual, without prejudice to any available administrative or non-judicial remedy, including the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, has the right to an effective judicial remedy where he/she considers that his/her rights under the GDPR have been infringed as a result of the processing of his/her personal data in non-compliance with the GDPR.
- (2) Proceedings against the Data controller or a processor shall be brought before the courts of the Member State where the Data controller or processor has an establishment. Alternatively, such proceedings may be brought before the courts of the Member State where the individual has habitual residence. You can find more information about the availabilities of the courts here: www.birosag.hu.

16. Data security

We follow an extensive information security ruleset regarding the provision of safety concerning the data and information under our governance, the knowing and following of which is mandatory for all our staff.

Our staff is regularly trained and coached in matters of data and information security.

16.1. Data security in IT infrastructure

We store personal data on our central server, to which only a select and close employee group have access, per strict access control rules. We regularly test and check our IT systems in order to ensure and maintain data and information security.

We fulfil data security obligations by complying with the PCI DSS certificate, which entails enacting the strictest banking security regulations regarding our systems and our data governance.

Office workstations are password protected, third-party storage devices are restricted and may only be used following approval.

Protection against malicious software is provided regarding all systems and system elements of the Service Provider.

During the planning, development, testing and operation of programs, applications and tools, we address security functions separately and with emphasis.

When allocating authorisations to our IT systems, we pay close attention to the protection of data (e.g. passwords, authorisations) affecting these systems.

16.2. Data security in communications

Regarding electronically forwarded messages and data, we conduct ourselves regarding our Key Management bylaws. In order to comply with the principle of safe transfer of data, we ensure the integrity of both the data of the controller and the user. For the prevention of data loss and damage, we use error detecting and correcting procedures. The application's passes, authorization data, safety parameters and other data may only be forwarded under encryption. We use network endpoint-to-endpoint authorization checking in order to ensure accountability and auditability.

Our implemented security measures detect unauthorized modifications, embedding and repetitive broadcasting. We prevent data loss and damage by fault detecting and correcting procedures and we ensure the prevention of deniability.

Regarding the network used for data transmission, we provide defence against illegal connection and eavesdropping per an adequate security level.

16.3. Data security in software development and programming

In development of the Simple Application, we implement the measures of data safety and security even into the planning stage, which we uphold during the entire course of development.

We separate the development environment from the live one, as well as development data from live data, and we depersonalise personal data in development, where possible.

We keep the requirements of safe coding in development, we use platform- and programming language-dependant technologies to avoid frequent damage risks, moreover, we follow the latest industry best practices regarding code examination (e.g. OWASP Top 10 Guide, SANS CWE Top 25, CERT Secure Coding)

We constantly follow procedures to identify newfound vulnerabilities, we regularly coach our developers regarding data security, and we standardise our programming techniques to avoid typical errors.

The checking of completed code is conducted pursuant to the principles of safe coding and documented with alteration tracking procedures in order to ensure proper documentation.

16.4. Data security in document management

We comply with data security requirements in document management as well, which we stipulate in document management by-laws. We manage documents by pre-set access and authorization levels, based on the level of confidentiality regarding the documents. We follow strict and detailed rules regarding the destruction of documents, their storage and handling at all times.

16.5. Physical data security

In order to provide physical data security, we ensure our physical barriers are properly closed and locked, and we keep strict access control regarding our visitors at all times.

Our paper documents containing persona data are stored in a closed locker that is fire- and theft-proof, to which only a select few have authorised access.

The rooms where storage devices are placed in have been made to provide adequate protection against unauthorised access and breaking and entering, as well as fire and environmental damage. Data transit, as well as the storage of backups and archives is done in these confined locations.

Backup data storage units are stored in a reliably locked area, with containers having a minimum of 30 minutes' fireproofing time.

17. What procedure do we follow upon an incident?

Pursuant to applicable law, we report incidents to the supervisory authority within 72 hours of having gained knowledge thereof, and we keep records of them. In cases regulated by applicable law, we also inform subjects of the incidents, where necessary.

18. When and how do we amend this notice?

Should the scope of data, or the circumstances of data management be subject to change, this notice shall be amended and published on www.simplepay.hu. Please pay attention to the amendments of this notice, as they contain important information regarding the management of your personal data.
